Welcome to virtual exhibition platform "oVice"

"oVice" allows you to communicate through your avatar with a more in-person-like way among the attendee and exhibitors on the virtual platform.

Here is a demonstration space with some mock-up booths. Please experience it for yourself.

Also, we are planning to present demonstration of our oVice platform from August to October.
The details of the demonstration will be announced on website:
<https://csj.or.jp/conference/MT27/exhibit-support-advertising/>.

Please check following video: "oVice Basics - How to Use".

The main interface of the virtual conference space shows a grid of booths and meeting rooms. On the left, there is a 'Meeting room for test'. In the center, there are several booths for 'JECC TORISHA Co., Ltd.' Each booth features the company logo, a 'Website' link, 'Products' information, and a 'Contact us' button. Below the booths, there are icons for 'Message Board' and 'Meeting Room for JECC'. At the bottom, there are navigation icons for chat, microphone, video, and other functions.
